MANNER AND MEANS USED TO ACCOMPLISH THE CONSPIRACY

The manner and means by which the defendants and co-conspirators would further and accomplish the objects of the conspiracy included the following:

1. It was part of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would purchase multi-kilogram quantities of cocaine and marihuana at wholesale prices.
2. It was a further part of the conspiracy that the defendants and co-conspirators would cook part of the cocaine purchased and create cocaine base (crack cocaine).
3. It was a further part of the conspiracy that the defendants and co-conspirators would package quantities of cocaine, cocaine base (crack cocaine) and marihuana in small quantities for subsequent sale to customers at drug points.
4. It was a further part of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would use residences and other locations in order to store and package the cocaine and marihuana.
5. It was a further part of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would sell cocaine, cocaine base (crack cocaine) and marihuana to customers at drug points.
6. It was a further part of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would have different roles and would perform different tasks in furtherance of the conspiracy.

ROLES OF THE MEMBERS OF THE CONSPIRACYI. Leaders

[1] JESUS R. PEREZ-CRUZ aka "Indio" was one of the leaders and organizers of the drug-trafficking organization described in Counts One and Two. He did lead, organize, control, enforce through the use of violence, and supervise the sales of controlled substances at drug points located at the Manuel A. Perez Public Housing Project, Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico. He did direct and
